Re: Sex Offender Sentenced to 40 Years DOC

Greeley, CO – On Friday, May 27th, the Honorable Judge Lyons followed a stipulated plea agreement and sentenced an Evans man (DOB 03/22/85) to forty years in the Department of Corrections. The defendant plead guilty to two counts of Assault 2-Causing Serious Bodily Injury (F4), Sexual Exploitation of a Child (F3), and Sexual Assault on a Child-Attempt (F5).

According to the Greeley Police Department affidavit, on January 8th, 2015, the mother of the victims reported to law enforcement that their step-uncle had sexually assaulted the girls while he was babysitting them on numerous occasions. The defendant, who is not being named due to a familial relationship to the victims, was arrested by GPD detectives after his stepfather agreed to wear a wire and confront the defendant about assaulting the two young girls. The defendant did admit to the allegations and was then arrested and interviewed by GPD detectives.

Judge Lyons addressed the minor victims in attendance during sentencing stating “I want you to know it took a lot of strength and courage to come forward and tell people what happened to you. You are remarkable children for your strength”.

The defendant will serve his forty year DOC sentence followed by 5 years of parole and lifetime registry as a sexual offender.
