Re: Officer Involved Shooting on January 4, 2015

Greeley, CO – The investigation is continuing into the officer-involved shooting of Michael Ray Rodriguez on January 4, 2015 in Evans, Colorado.

The investigation is being conducted by the Weld County District Attorney's Office with the assistance of the Greeley Police Department. It is expected that a determination into whether the officers involved were justified in discharging their firearms will be made in the next thirty (30) to forty-five (45) days. The detectives assigned to this case are in the process of conducting a full, complete and thorough investigation. The final report from the District Attorney's Office will address the factual circumstances surrounding the shooting as well as address inaccurate information that has been provided to the media outlets by various sources of information.
