

DA'S OFFICE AND THE JUVENILE CRIMINAL SYSTEM

*If Diversion doesn't accept the juvenile or the juvenile doesn't comply, the case is sent back to the DA's office.

JAC JAC will take over supervision of juvenile to allow officer to return to the street; will also assist in the transfer of paperwork from officer to parent. If the juvenile is a runaway, an officer can bring that juvenile to the JAC and the JAC will look for the parents/guardian. JAC doesn't come into criminal cases at all.
