Re: Weld County DA Investigator Honored

Greeley, CO –Weld County District Attorney’s Office Investigator Traci Dowd was recognized on Thursday, August 20th by the U. S. Attorney’s Office for her outstanding work as part of a Federal Bureau of Investigation Task Force on white collar crime. The District of Colorado United States Attorney’s Office in Denver nominates and selects various agents based on great work and diligent effort.

Michael J. Rourke added “This honor is well-earned recognition for the dedication and hard work that Investigator Traci Dowd provides the people of Weld County on a daily basis. She is an outstanding asset to this office and community, and I would like to congratulate her for receiving this award.”
